

Call for Articles

For Publication in NYHIMA's Perspectives Online

The New York Health Information Management Association is looking for printed materials (articles) to be included in their bi-monthly publication, "Perspectives Online." Following is a list of suggested categories and/or topics. We invite you to select one or more categories in which you would like to share your knowledge, explain your accomplishments, or discuss a particular interest in the Health Information Profession.

Article Submission Deadlines

August Issue – July 1, October Issue – September 1, December Issue – November 1
February Issue – January 1, April Issue – March 1, June Issue – May 1

Local Association News

-Election results, educational sessions, professional activities

e-HIM

-Standards, inter-operability
-Effective transitions
-Computer / technology basics

Coding News and Information

-Inpatient: guidelines, new codes, ICD-10
-Outpatient: guidelines, new codes, CPT/HCPCS, hospital E/M

On the Legislative Front

-ICD-10, HIPAA
-National legislation/issues
-New York State legislation/issues

AHIMA News and Information

-House of Delegates, membership
-Advocacy Assistant, CoP news

PHR

-Community Education Campaign
-PHR products, AHIMA initiatives

Alphabet Soup

-CMS, DOQ-IT, HIPAA, IPRO, RAC, SPARCS

NYHIMA News and Announcements

-Congratulations: retirements, weddings, births, etc.
-On the Move: job promotions, new assignments, etc.
-In the Spotlight: awards and recognition, presentations, etc.

Personnel Development

-Time management, stress management, goal setting, performance and evaluation

The Joint Commission

-Standards, models of practice, quality measures, TRACER methodology

Physician Office

-EMR, Pay-for-Performance, coding issues

Performance Improvement

-Clinical pertinence review, chart completion
-Quality measures
-Best practices

From Your Peers

-A Day in the Life: traditional or non-traditional HIM practice, share your experiences and successes
-Collaborative efforts: share your involvement in other professional groups/organizations

The NYHIMA Perspectives Editor Director and Editorial Board determine the choice of articles to be published. All submissions to Perspectives Online must (1) cite all information sources; (2) provide complete author identification; (3) be concise and to the point; (4) be written in Microsoft Word; and (5) be transmitted as an email attachment(s) to the Perspectives Editor Director, Elizabeth Wheeler, RHIA CCS-P, at: e.wheeler@elsevier.com.

All standard submissions, such as Local Association news, President's Message, etc., can be sent directly to the NYHIMA Central Office at: charrington@nyhima.org.